first published in 1996 routledge is an imprint of taylor francis an informa company structured thematically around five key issues lacan's entire work both published and unpublished material has been taken into account and theoretical examples are illustrated with clinical examples and full bibliography this book explores the issues that surround medically assisted reproduction it addresses the place of destiny including how to think about individual destinies in an age of increasingly accessible gene sequencing paired with a growing link between procreation and prediction david hopkins analyses the extensive network of shared concerns and images in the work of marcel duchamp and max ernst the greatest names associated with dada and surrealist art this book covers a broad period from c 1912 to the mid 1940s during which the emergence of dada and surrealism in europe and the united states challenged earlier movements such as cubism and expressionism creating scope for the expression of the unconscious fears and desires of artists acutely sensitive to the troubled nature of their times examining duchamp's and ernst's subversion and manipulation of religious and hermetic beliefs such as catholicism rosicrucianism and masonry david hopkins demonstrates the ways in which these esoteric concerns intersect with themes of peculiarly contemporary relevance including the social construction of gender and notions of ordering and taxonomy this detailed comparison of components of duchamp's and ernst's work reveals fascinating structural patterns enabling the reader to discover an entirely new way of understanding the mechanisms underlying dada and surrealist iconography in 1996 physicist alan sokal published an essay in social text an influential academic journal of cultural studies touting the deep similarities between quantum gravitational theory and postmodern philosophy soon thereafter the essay was revealed as a brilliant parody a catalog of nonsense written in the cutting edge but impenetrable lingo of postmodern theorists the event sparked a furious debate in academic circles and made the headlines of newspapers in the u s and abroad in fashionable nonsense postmodern intellectuals abuse of science sokal and his fellow physicist jean bricmont expand from where the hoax left off in a delightfully witty and clear voice the two thoughtfully and thoroughly dismantle the pseudo scientific writings of some of the most fashionable french and american intellectuals more generally they challenge the widespread notion that scientific theories are mere narrations or social constructions some of the most well known psychoanalysts and literary theorists explore jacques lacan s influence on literature the relationship between literature and psychology is long and richly complex and no more so than in the work of jacques lacan the most controversial psychoanalyst since freud the literary lacan from literature to lituraterre and beyond is dedicated to assessing lacan s significant contribution to literary studies and the contribution in turn of literature to lacanian psychoanalysis the first essays in this collection provide close readings of lacan s literature related work specifically his work on hamlet his homage to marguerite duras and lewis carroll his concept of lituraterre and his seminar on james joyce other essays examine lacan s theories in conjunction with the works of major writers such as samuel beckett the book concludes with essays that investigate lacan and literature more broadly including the applicability of literature to psychoanalysis with well known contributors including slavoj zizek jacques alain miller russell grigg and ellie ragland this volume will appeal not only to specialists in literary and lacanian theory but also to students and enthusiasts of the master and the literature that inspired him this work examines the forms of language that map out italy as an imaginative topography of pleasure within british and french travel writing over the period 1600 to 1830 it considers the tour with reference to strategies of description and themes preliminares en inglés francés y español
